Winter Parking Regulations End Friday, March 2

Winter parking regulations for the City of Milwaukee expire on Friday, March 2, 2018. Residents must still follow winter parking rules overnight Thursday, March 1 into Friday morning, March 2.

What this means:

- Posted regulations that include “No Parking Dec. 1 to March 1” expire as of March 2
- Major thoroughfares and streets with bus routes will now allow either alternate side parking or two-sided parking during the overnight hours from 2:00 to 6:00 a.m.

NOTE: Residents are reminded that DPW can still call an Overnight Snow Removal Operation or declare a snow emergency after March 2, should weather conditions warrant it.

Get and stay connected to learn when a DPW overnight snow removal operation or a snow emergency is in effect:

- Sign up to receive E-Notify Winter Parking Alert email and/or text messages at milwaukee.gov/mpw . Subscribers will receive electronic messages sent to their email accounts and/or their cell phone(s) alerting them that a DPW overnight snow removal operation or a snow emergency has been called
- Follow DPW on Facebook and Twitter: @milwaukeedpw (both platforms)
- Check milwaukee.gov/snow for updates
- Press releases are sent to local media outlets – Watch for/listen to/read this information
- Call (414) 286-CITY (-2489)

Learn the City parking rules and regulations for your street and neighborhood:

- Remember, a valid overnight parking permit is required in the City of Milwaukee to park overnight on City streets from 2:00 to 6:00 a.m.
- DPW website: milwaukee.gov/parking – includes parking regulations by street and E-Notify information and sign-up
- Call (414) 286-CITY (-2489)
